

Fifth Sunday after Pentecost

July 5, 2020

SPECIAL MEETING OF THE CONGREGATION JULY 12 AT 9:00 A.M. The Kent Council recently confirmed a pastoral recommendation as proposed by the call committee. The next step is to meet this candidate in an informal setting. The Kent Council will sponsor a “Meet and Greet” on July 8, 2020, at 6:00 p.m. At the event, the candidate will offer a short devotional, followed by a question and answer period. Biographical materials will be provided to the congregation when permitted. We will also Zoom the Meet and Greet.

After the meet and greet we will have a congregational vote for the purpose of extending a Call and Financial package on Sunday July 12, 2020, between services at 9:00 a.m. in the Fellowship Hall.

As more information becomes available for publication, it will be provided.

The Kent Memorial Council
Bill Work, President

FROM BILL WORK

We are entering a new phase of the life of Kent Memorial. I encourage all Kent Members to attend the Meet and Greet, scheduled July 8, 2020 at 6:00 pm and the Special Congregational Meeting scheduled for 9:00 am Sunday July 12, 2020. Of these meetings the most important is the Congregational Meeting.

In order to successfully call a minister at the Special Congregational Meeting we will need a physical quorum. Voting for a candidate by proxy is not permitted. (As stated in our Constitution, Page 29, section C10.05.)

The Special Congregational meeting will have only two questions that require resolution. Question One is: Shall the person approved by the Call Committee and by Kent Church Council, be called to serve as Pastor of Kent Memorial Church. The Second Question is: Shall the initial annual compensation: (an itemized list of compensation, based on CSS-ELCA guidelines) be approved? Questions One and two will be by written ballot. All actions approved by the congregation shall be by majority vote of those voting members present and voting.

This year of Covid 19 has and continues to be a challenge to us all. Everyone's safety at these meetings is first and foremost. I believe we will be safe if we maintain social distancing. Masks are optional but may be worn as a personal preference.

Again, looking forward to seeing you in person at the upcoming meet and greet, and Special Congregational Meeting.

In Christ, Bill Work

FROM PASTOR GAUCK

“May you live in interesting times.” They say it is a Chinese curse. And there are days in which, I believe, we are living in “interesting times.” Of course we are excited about the prospects of our meeting our pastoral candidate a week from today for that will be an “interesting time” for us. But we are also living in another more scary “interesting time” with this COVID-19. Reading of the surge in many states, including Missouri, even though our numbers are lower than many of these states, it does bring concerns for each of us. I appreciate our members who do come to worship for practicing social distancing and for those who wear masks. I still wear a mask when I am out and about and often wish others did also. But people are tired of the lockdown and mask wearing and I really don’t blame them. But when we are out in a crowd it is just wise to wear them.

Last week I attended two funeral services, one I conducted for Bev Brumm and another Jan and I attended for good friends whose son died. In both situations only a few wore masks and did not practice social distancing. At the memorial service, not only didn’t they wear masks, but they sang two meaningful songs which are against all published guidelines. Jan and I sat in the last row away from people and when they started singing, I was glad we had chosen to sit back there. And now we are glad we wore masks, but are a little concerned until a week from this coming Friday. We did all the right things but there is always that slight possibility of having been exposed, especially when we are indoors. As I said we are “living in interesting times.” But as I preached a while back “Do not be afraid...” God is truly here for us and we are to trust always in the Lord whatever the future may hold for us.

So embrace these “Interesting times” for they do make life Interesting. And trust always in the Lord.

Pastor Gauck

Welcome to Worship

The mystery of God’s ways is sometimes hidden from the wise and intelligent. Jesus associates with those often excluded from the religious community. Like Paul, we struggle with our own selfish desires and seek God’s mercy and forgiveness. We gather to be refreshed by Christ’s invitation: “Come to me, all you that are weary.” Gathered around word, water, and meal, we find rest for our souls.

Profession of Faith–Nicene Creed

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the virgin Mary and became truly human.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the scriptures;

he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers

P: Hear us, O God.

C: Your mercy is great.

Holy Communion (10am)

P: The Lord be with you.

C: And also with you.

P: Lift up your hearts.

C: We lift them to the Lord.

P: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

C: It is right to give our thanks and praise.

P: It is indeed right, our duty and our joy, that we should at all times and in all places give thanks and praise to you, almighty and merciful God, through our Savior Jesus Christ; who on this day overcame death and the grave, and by his glorious resurrection opened to us the way of everlasting life.

And so, with all the choir of angels, with the church on earth and the hosts of heaven, we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

Holy, Holy, Holy (spoken)

All: Holy, holy, holy Lord. God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.
