Pastor's Thought

July 2020

This summer I have been so mindful of the Wisdom God provides us, for it truly is one of those blessings we gain over time as a result of mistakes and failures that happen in our lives. Wisdom is not something that is quickly downloaded but takes time and a willingness to learn from our mistakes and appreciate what we have gained from those experiences. Wisdom is a gift from God and has always been considered a blessing of the first order.

Many things come into our lives and we must make wise choices about what we will embrace and what we will let go. And that leads us into the need we have for living an attitude of gratitude. Our attitude about life will reward us in finding what we are looking for.

If we are looking for the beauty that God provides us each day, we will find it and give thanks for it. If we are looking for the negative or downers of life, we will find those as well. Like the birds of the air we can be hummingbirds looking for fresh clean blossoms that are filled with life and sweetness or be like vultures that look for things of the past that are dead and awful. Life contains the good and the bad, the beautiful and the ugly, the right and the wrong, and we have to be careful in our choices.

As St. Paul wrote the days are evil so we have to be cautious how we live life. We are to seek that which is good, live a life of sobriety and rejoice in what God has provided us.

I must admit I like people who are positive and appreciate what life has turned up for them for they are fun to be with, they are a people that affirm what is good and they share who they are and what they have. They are a delight from God.

I am thankful for what many of you offer so we can have two services during this summer. I am thankful for those with special gifts and are willing to share them with us. I am thankful for each of you who attend our service, for those who contribute to this ministry and for those who give so freely of themselves to minister to those in our community who are in need of help.

So as we get into these summer days, enjoy what God has given us and share that joy with one another, and learn from God what is truly important for such wisdom is truly from God.

Pastor Carl

Join fellow members of Kent for this time of Bible study and fellowship on Zoom. This will be a casual voluntary gathering of Kent members every Thursday at 6:00 p.m. We will start with a short devotional and related discussion. We expect to wander to different topics that we would normally experience in the fellowship hall after church while enjoying coffee and donuts.

This meeting is set up differently than Sunday morning worship. Microphones and webcams (cameras) will be turned on so that we can see and hear each other to facilitate discussion.

For questions and to receive the Zoom code, contact Al Mohling.

STEWARDSHIP FOCUS

Stewardship Focus - July

Everything we have is a gift from God, and stewardship is our response to these gifts!

This month we focus on the next letter from the S.T.E.W.A.R.D. model, the letter W, representing stewardship to the World. Our focus on the World has us look at how and what we do to help those in our community and around the globe.

W.W.J.D. Remember the children's motto from a few years back? What Would Jesus Do? Well, we are all children of God and can apply this to our view of stewardship as well. And we have a clear and unambiguous answer from Jesus himself. We hear this every Holy Week. John writes in John 13:34-35, "A new commandment I give to you, that you Love one another, Just as I have Loved you, you also are to Love one another. By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you Love one another."

Proverbs 3:7 encourages us this way, "Do not withhold good from those who need it, when you have the ability to help."

We at Kent do a great service in this respect with our service to the school, Community for Christ, Westside Senior Center, Disaster Relief and World Hunger campaigns, and many others. But we always have to be vigilant about looking for other ways we can help others. Need is always there. And this applies to how we treat others as well. Jesus said to Love one another, so let's do as Jesus would have us do. W.W.J.D?

Other verses to ponder: Proverbs 19:17

In Christ,
Michael Wagner

Women of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America
Kent Memorial Lutheran Church
June 2, 2020

President Eldeen Hanke opened our June meeting in prayer. She welcomed everyone back after Covid-19 caused a 'stay at home' order the past several months. We had 19 ladies in attendance. Eldeen thanked Ingrid Niemann and Marilyn Peterson for being hostesses. The devotion was given by Jane Maher, entitled 'Calming of Fearful Hearts'.

The secretary's report for the March meeting was handed out for each lady to read. Diane Ziehl made a motion to accept the minutes and Sharon Ballard seconded the motion. Karen Ringsdorf read the correspondence and posted it on WELCA's bulletin board.

Joyce Wanamaker gave the treasurer's report for March, April, and May. We have a month end balance of $4,453.70.

CHRISTIAN ACTION: Eldeen reported Kathy Fair is again making doll clothes for Hurricane Deck's Christmas store. Kathy would like donations of 15" and 18" dolls. Linda Williams said she had crocheted 20 sets of hats and booties in April and 10 sets in May, to be given to Lake Regional Hospital.

COMMUNITY FOR CHRIST: The thrift store will be opening soon and will have social distancing rules for shopping. The food bank and other assistances are being handled by phone. Pantry needs for June are paper products, shampoo, deodorant, toothpaste, & cereal.

LAURIE CARE CENTER: Still closed due to Covid-19.

SENIOR CENTER: Jane Maher reported the center is closed and now doing curbside meals. When they reopen changes will be made, such as plating meals.

CARE CORE: Linda Williams said there were no new needs. Barb Yount is Care Core coordinator in June.

SUNSHINE LADY: Lorraine Boyd has mailed 5 get well and 2 sympathy cards in the past 3 months.

BOX TOPS: Wendy Blomberg has received 16 Box Tops for Hurricane Deck School.

BUDDY BACKPACKS: Wendy Bloomberg reported there are 12 families with 32 kids in the summer Buddy Backpack program. Food items are picked up once a month at the church.

SPECIAL EVENTS:

Rummage Sale: A lengthy discussion was had on the possibilities of having the rummage sale this year due to the pandemic. Members were asked for their input and if they would work the sale. It was decided to table the decision until July when we know what the Missouri governor's restrictions for the virus will be.

Ladies Spring Luncheon: Mary Evans reported we are hoping to re-schedule it in the fall.

BIRTHDAYS: Happy Birthday was sung to Barb Yount, Eldeen Hanke, Joyce Wanamaker, Diane Ziehl, and Mary Evans.

OLD BUSINESS:

WELCA will be having a bake and craft sale during the November elections. Members are encouraged to make crafts during their 'stay at home' time! Eldeen showed us her wine cork crafts she has been making.

NEW BUSINESS:

Eldeen displayed a large chart from Lutheran World Relief. It shows where all the projects and funds go. Kent's WELCA made health and school kits this past year.

A blood drive will be at Kent Memorial on June 12th. Joyce McHenry said no food can be brought in due to the virus.

Linda Williams handed out the new prayer chain phone calling list.

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

Eldeen said the upcoming cluster meeting had been cancelled.

Glenice Gibson thanked everyone for the kindness shown to her during her husband's illness. Also, please keep Shirley Clark in your prayers as her leg heals.

Hostesses for July are Joyce McHenry and Melba Bangert.

We closed our meeting with the Lord's prayer.

From the Women of the ELCA Newsletter—

Dear Women of ELCA [Kent Memorial Lutheran Church],

I have lived at the Mission of the Good Shepherd in Belize Central America for the past 15 years. I grew up at the Mission. I am an adult now, went to college with the help of Pastor Post, and I have come back to the Mission to help Pastor Post. But, I want to tell you something sad. Pastor Post, who came from the US as a Missionary over 15 years ago, sent out nearly 100 letters to Pastors asking for prayers for some special children in need here in Belize, and he got no response. He couldn't believe it. No one was willing to pray for these children. No one wrote back to him. Although somebody suggested that maybe they prayed but were just too busy to let us know. This could be.

I know that the bible says that we should pray for one another. And I know that most Pastors are extremely overworked, with very little time even for themselves let alone prayer time for those outside their own congregations. And so that is why, as a woman, I am writing to the Women of ELCA. Would you be willing to pray for some children who are really in need of your prayers? Their names are Erin Garbutt, Stephanie Westby, Stacy Westby, Stephanie Logan and little Dionnie Westby. Although we have other children here at the Mission who could use prayers, these are the children who we need special prayers for right now. These children have very immediate, urgent needs that only God can help with.

It is hard to believe that a Missionary, who has given up his whole life to travel to a 3rd world country to bring the gospel to people, who has spent over 16 years working with some of the most underprivileged children in this country, and then got no response when writing to his own people back home asking for prayers. Pastor Post seemed really down that he didn't hear back from anybody. I told him that maybe the Pastors prayed but just didn't let him know. But anyway, that's why I decided to send this letter to the Lutheran Women of your Church. As a woman, I know that women care, especially Lutheran women. And they pray.

If the Women of ELCA, or anyone else from your congregation, will pray for these children, please email or write to me and let me know so that I can tell Pastor Post. I have very little to offer you in return for your prayers, but if you will do this, I will send you a hand colored picture each month by one of the children who you will be praying for, similar to the one that I have enclosed by little Erin Garbutt.
