Hearing God's Call & Responding in Love,
We Share Jesus With All!

FROM PASTOR ED

We embark on the roller-coaster of Holy Week as Jesus enters Jerusalem hailed as king and messiah, and soon to be rejected and crucified. Our emotions will be pulled this way and that, our expectations and our beliefs, and our values will be challenged and turned upside down. With twists and turns and sometimes breath taking speed, Jesus' journey and ours moves unrelentingly towards the cross... and to the resurrection. As we prepare for Palm Sunday, Holy Week, and finally Easter, I encourage you to ride along with open eyes and open hearts. Though most of us have heard the story of Jesus' Passion, many times, we encounter our risen Lord himself in its telling. It isn't just something that happened long ago, but in our hearing it has the power to give us new and eternal life.

OUR 10:00 a.m. WORSHIP IS AVAILABLE VIA ZOOM:

To join a worship service, contact the church office, 573-374-5267.

WELCOME TO WORSHIP

This week, the center of the church's year, is one of striking contrasts: Jesus rides into Jerusalem surrounded by shouts of glory, only to be left alone to die on the cross, abandoned by even his closest friends. Mark's gospel presents Jesus in his complete human vulnerability: agitated, grieved, scared, forsaken. Though we lament Christ's suffering and all human suffering, we also expect God's salvation: in the wine and bread, Jesus promises that his death will mark a new covenant with all people. We enter this holy week thirsty for the completion of God's astonishing work.

Psalm 31:9-16 (Congregation reads responsively)

<sup>9</sup>Have mercy on me, O LORD, for I am in trouble;

my eye is consumed with sorrow, and also my throat and my belly.

<sup>10</sup>For my life is wasted with grief, and my years with sighing; my strength fails me because of affliction, and my bones are consumed.

<sup>11</sup>I am the scorn of all my enemies, a disgrace to my neighbors, a dismay to my acquaintances; when they see me in the street they avoid me.

<sup>12</sup>Like the dead I am forgotten, out of mind;

I am as useless as a broken pot.

<sup>13</sup>For I have heard the whispering of the crowd; fear is all around; they put their heads together against me; they plot to take my life.

<sup>14</sup>But as for me, I have trusted in you, O LORD.

I have said, "You are my God.

<sup>15</sup>My times are in your hand;

rescue me from the hand of my enemies, and from those who persecute me.

save me in your steadfast love.”

Profession of Faith—Apostle’s Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, God’s only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven,
he is seated at the right hand of the Father,
and he will come again to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

C: Your mercy is great.

Presentation of Our Offerings

Offering Prayer

Holy Communion

P: The Lord be with you.

C: And also with you.

P: Lift up your hearts.

C: We lift them to the Lord.

P: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

C: It is right to give our thanks and praise.

P: It is indeed right, our duty and our joy, that we should at all times and in all places give thanks and praise to you, almighty and merciful God, through our Savior Jesus Christ; who on this day overcame death and the grave, and by his glorious resurrection opened to us the way of everlasting life.

And so, with all the choir of angels, with the church on earth and the hosts of heaven, we praise your name and join their unending hymn.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

SEDER MEAL ON MAUNDY THURSDAY The Passover Seder has been celebrated among the Jewish people for thousands of years. It was this meal that Jesus and his disciples were eating on the night in which he was betrayed. And this meal is the beginning of our celebration of Holy Communion. Join us this Holy Week as we learn the traditions of the Passover Seder and how they relate to us today. Please sign-up in the fellowship hall by March 28 so we know how many tables to set up.

SEDER MEAL POTLUCK As a part of the Seder celebration, we will share a potluck meal, served by the Worship & Music committee members. Everyone in attendance is invited to bring a side dish. In keeping with the kosher traditions of this Jewish meal, side dishes could be a fruit salad, vegetables, devilled eggs, or a dessert. (*Dairy and meat are not supposed to be eaten together in a kosher meal, so we might try the challenge of coming up with side dishes that exclude those items.*)
