Hearing God's Call & Responding in Love,
We Share Jesus With All!

FROM PASTOR ED

The troubling and gruesome imagery of Jesus' words in this week's Gospel lesson make clear how seriously Jesus takes sin. It would be better to lose a limb or an eye than to be relegated to the fires of hell, he declares. But of course, it is not our hands or our feet or our eyes that cause us to sin. What is it that we need to cut off or pluck out? What is it that we need to let go of and get rid of? What is standing between us and our loving God?

OUR 10:00 a.m. WORSHIP IS AVAILABLE VIA ZOOM:

To join a worship service, contact the church, 573-374-5267.

WELCOME TO WORSHIP

Someone who isn't part of Jesus' own circle is casting out demons in Jesus' name, and the disciples want him stopped. They appeal to Jesus, as Joshua did to Moses about the elders who prophesied without official authorization. Like Moses, Jesus refuses to see this as a threat. Jesus welcomes good being done in his name, even when it is not under his control. The circle we form around Jesus' word must be able to value good being done in ways we wouldn't do it, by people we can't keep tabs on.

<sup>8</sup>The statutes of the LORD are just and rejoice the heart;
the commandment of the LORD is clear and gives light to the eyes.

<sup>9</sup>The fear of the LORD is clean and endures forever;
the judgments of the LORD are true and righteous altogether.

<sup>10</sup>More to be desired are they than gold, more than much fine gold, sweeter far than honey, than honey in the comb.

<sup>11</sup>By them also is your servant enlightened, and in keeping them there is great reward.

<sup>12</sup>Who can detect one’s own offenses?
Cleanse me from my secret faults.

<sup>13</sup>Above all, keep your servant from presumptuous sins; let them not get dominion over me;
then shall I be whole and sound, and innocent of a great offense.

O LORD, my strength and my redeemer.

Please introduce yourself to Pastor at the end of the service.

NEW MEMBER HARVEST BRUNCH On Sunday, October 3, at our 10am service, we will welcome new members of the Kent family. Following worship, we will gather for a meal and fellowship. Please, plan to join us. Bring a dish or dessert to share.

COUNTERS NEEDED Kent has had a number of very loyal members of the counting team (those who count the Offering each week) resign their position during the past trying year.

Consequently, we are asking for 6 to 8 volunteers to replace those who are unable to continue to serve the church in this capacity. Training will be provided by Gail Kruse. At present the counting rotation is generally once a month. If there are more counters, the number of weeks in the rotation will increase. Two counters are required each week. We need volunteers for the regular rotation and members who will serve as back up counters in the event of illness or travel or other life circumstances. If interested, please contact Gail Kruse at 573-374-4651, Jane Maher at 812-306-5462, or Al Mohling at 319-493-8796.

AUTHOR ELLIE ROSCHER AT ST. PAUL'S, COLE CAMP Ellie Roscher, author of 12 Tiny Things, Play Like a Girl, and How Coffee Save My Life, will be at St. Paul's Lutheran, Cole Camp, on Sunday, October 10. "Through curious inquiry, commitment to the sacred ordinary and artistic collaboration, her work accompanies people to a more centered, whole, and embodied self." Though it is a Sunday, Pastor Kim wanted you to know you are welcome for the main presentation at 12:15 p.m. For more information, contact St. Paul's, 660-668-3537.
