Hearing God's Call & Responding in Love,
We Share Jesus With All!

FROM PASTOR ED

Among the 12 who Jesus called to be Apostles, was the tax collector Matthew. Tax collectors were especially hated by the common people, not just because they collected taxes, which few people enjoy paying, but because they were collecting those taxes for the Roman government. Additionally, they were notoriously corrupt. Seen as traitors to their people, collaborators with their foreign rulers, few groups of people were more despised. And yet Jesus called Matthew to be one of the 12, offering a level of grace that few in his day or ours would accept. He indeed declared that he had come to save just such people as Matthew, sinners in need of forgiveness and salvation. Who do we struggle to offer such grace to in our lives? Who seems beyond the reach of God's love and mercy? Who would we be surprised or even upset to know that Jesus had welcomed them into his inner circle?

Have a wonderful week!
Shalom!
Pastor Ed

Welcome to Worship

Though Jesus was a devout Jew who practiced his faith, he was criticized for eating with tax collectors and sinners—the religiously nonobservant. Jesus criticizes the self-righteous and reminds us that mercy is to be at the heart of our religious practices. God continues to be made known in those on the margins of society, like Matthew the tax collector and the hemorrhaging woman. As we gather each Lord’s day we receive the healing that makes us well and sends us forth to be signs of God’s mercy for the world.

Confession and Forgiveness

P: “Turn to me and be saved,” says the Lord; “for I am God, and there is no other.”

C: If we confess our sins, God, who is faithful and just, will forgive our sins, and cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

P: In the open hands of the needy - as well as in the proclamation of the Gospel - Jesus comes among us. Is he truly welcome?

C: We confess to you our sins of thought, word, and deed, our woeful inadequacy. We have failed to hear your Word - or speak it, or do it - as we ought. Without your help, we perish. Therefore, we implore your mercy for the sake of Jesus Christ your Son. Forgive us our sin and empower us for faithful witness. Turn us, that we might be saved.

P: Our Lord Jesus Christ sees us in our need. His arms are open wide to welcome us. For the sake of his suffering and death, your sins are forgiven. You are saved.

C: Thanks be to God through Jesus Christ our Lord! Amen.
