Parables

Jesus told the crowds all these things in parables; without a parable he told them nothing. Matthew 13:34

On a warm and sticky West Virginia summer evening my dad and my Uncle Burton and I were sitting out on the back porch of his home, watching the fireflies dancing over the sweet corn in his garden. The air was thick, and the iced tea was sweet. As the sun began to set, Uncle Burton began to tell us about his military service during WW2. He hit Omaha Beach on the 2nd day after D-Day and served throughout the entire war. Burton told funny stories. He told sad stories. He told us stories of his friends that he lost and the things he was called on to do that had left scars on his soul that hurt him even to that day. My Uncle shared something precious with my dad and I that day. He shared himself. He shared his truth. He told us parables.

We have long known the power of stories. From our oldest ancestors, stories were how we passed on the knowledge of one generation down to the next. More powerful and more memorable than just plain facts or doctrines, stories connect with us and they stay with us.

Jesus, of course, knew this too. He knew the power of stories to capture the imaginations and the hearts of those who listened to him, and so he taught his disciples in parables, parables that we still hold dear today.

I think it's important that we all tell our stories. That we tell them to our friends. That we tell them to our family: children and grandchildren, even nieces and nephews. That we tell them to one another over coffee and donuts at church, and that we share them with our pastor. Telling our stories, funny ones, bittersweet ones, meaningful and silly ones, shares both our wisdom and our perspective. It provides the basis for common ground and the opportunity for connections and understanding that would be nearly impossible to achieve any other way. Our stories give meaning not only to our own lives, but to the lives of the people to whom we are connected. Stories are powerful. Stories are important.

Tell your parables! Share them over breakfast at the café and beverages at the golf course. Share your stories, and invite those in your life to share their stories with you. Especially share your stories of how you have seen God at work in your life and in the world around you. Share your experiences of faith and of doubt, of wonder and despair. Tell your parables and we will all be richer for it.

God bless you all, and all of your parables.
Pastor Ed

Endowment Fund Exploratory Committee

The Council and Finance Committee are considering establishing an endowment fund here at Kent Memorial. An endowment fund is a particularly effective way for people to support the ministries that they care about during and beyond their lifetimes, and provides many estate planning and tax benefits to those who participate.

We are forming a committee to continue the exploration of establishing an endowment fund and to prepare the governing documents for it. Would you be interested in being a part of this project? If so, please let Pastor Ed, Michael Wagner or Al Mohling know.

BRING THOSE DONATIONS!

We are ready for you to bring your good, clean usable treasures for us to sell at the Rummage Sale. Please make sure if you bring appliances that they work. And AGAIN we are asking for NO computers or TV's. Also no mattresses or big exercise equipment. Please have all your donations to the church by noon WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 2. Thank you!

HURRICANE DECK HEALTH FAIR AUGUST 10

Hurricane Deck Elementary will again be having a Health Fair on Thursday, August 10. I applied for and received a Thrivent Action Team for school supplies so that all children will have a good start to the school year.

If you would like to donate any supplies, they would be greatly appreciated. Some of the more costly items on their lists are:

- ◆ white 1.5" notebooks with a vinyl slip cover on the front
- ◆ black dry erase markers
- ◆ glue sticks
- ◆ pointed scissors
- ◆ anti-bacterial wipes

Please put any items in the Buddy Pack room. Thank you for your continued support of Hurricane Deck.

VINNY IS TURNING 50

Vaclav Stepanik, or Vinny as most know him, is turning 50 this month—

July 25

He has done so much for our Buddy Pack program, from sponsoring the golf tournament to collecting donations, that I thought it would be fun to collect something for him.

He is always so generous at Christmas for the Hurricane Deck Christmas store that I would like to collect 50 toys, games and puzzles now that I know he will donate to the Christmas Store in December. He will be surprised and also thrilled that the Christmas Store at Hurricane Deck will have a good start for Christmas, especially since he can't take collections at his restaurant right now.

Any donations are appreciated and can be put in the Buddy Pack room.

Thank you, Wendy Blomberg

FINANCIAL NOTES:

A. Current Financial Situation – Kent’s giving has slightly deteriorated during the month of May. Our May expenses stabilized and, for the first 5 months, averaged close to the budget. Thank you to all those who prayerfully gave offerings to support Kent’s mission.

B. Thrivent Action Teams – Thrivent provides $250 per project to kick-start a fundraiser, educational event, or service project for Kent or the community. Each qualifying Thrivent member can submit two projects per year for approval by Thrivent. This is an excellent way to provide funds to do projects and not have to use Kent budgeted monies. If you have questions about this, please contact Joyce Wanamaker, Kathy Fair, or Al Mohling.

Faith, Hope and Love Abide,
And the greatest of these is Love!

Love Abides...
Grief Support Group

Love is the most precious of God's gifts. Through God's gift of love, God blesses us in every way imaginable. Love brings life. It brings joy. Love gives us support when we are weak, and it gives us courage when we are fearful. Love fills our lives and our hearts with the beloved. But when we lose someone we love, the hole in our lives is also love-shaped.

Learning to live with our grief is something most of us will have to do in our lives to one degree or another and it isn't something most of us have much experience with. To help all of us on our journeys through grief we are going to start a grief support group here at Kent.

Our next gathering will be Wednesday, July 19th at 3:00 pm.

It is a laid back and comfortable time to honor those we are grieving, share ways we can cope with our feelings and the challenges our losses have brought us, and examine what resources our faith and our church family can bring to our experience of loss.

This is a work in progress. Times and locations, even our format are subject to change as we figure out what works best for us, but we have to start somewhere, so we will start on a Thursday afternoon in March. Anyone and everyone who is grieving is welcome.

Did You Know...

In addition to the bread, cross (made by Gerry W.), and church literature given to first time visitors, the Evangelism Committee members also try to send a follow-up card to our first time visitors.

The Evangelism Committee reaches out to the community by distributing flyers promoting Kent to resorts, motels, RV parks, and the Chamber. We sponsor community events such as God's Work Our Hands, September 11th cookies, and Trunk or Treat.

We enjoy planning and sponsoring a couple of Kent events for our members each year, also.

Is there something about the life of Kent that you'd like to know? Ask Kathy Fair then keep an eye out for the answer in an upcoming "Did You Know..."

STEWARDSHIP CDRNER

Everything we have is a gift from God,
and stewardship is our response to these gifts!

We're in the midst of summer and that means many of us are in the midst of entertaining many guests, family & friends here at the Lake. So, what does this have to do with stewardship you say? Well, when we take care of our guests we display hospitality. And being hospitable is a stewardship calling for us.

Hebrews 13:2 puts it this way, "Do not neglect hospitality, because through it some have entertained angels without knowing it."

Romans 12:13 says, "Contribute to the needs of the saints, pursue hospitality."

1 Peter 4:9 continues, "Show hospitality to one another without complaining."

Not only are we called on to show hospitality to our family & friends, we are called to show hospitality to strangers. We here at Kent are great at doing this, not only during the summer, but year-round, by helping our community and neighbors in so many ways.

I encourage you to read the accompanying passages to the verses above; Hebrews 13:1-7, Romans 12: 9-21 and 1 Peter 4: 8-11. I think you will feel inspired to continue showing hospitality to others and in so doing, we can Share Jesus with All!

Michael Wagner

SOCIAL MINISTRY COMMITTEE REPORT

Social Ministry has been busy helping those in need and planning for the next few months. During the month of May eight (8) families were helped with rent, electric, gasoline, water and fumigation. A total of $862.56 was distributed. The report for June assistance will be presented at the July 10th meeting.

Beginning Sunday July 2nd envelopes will be available for your donation for Festival of Sharing in Missouri (see back page). Over 150 agencies in Missouri are approved to receive goods and services through the Festival of Sharing. Agencies have gone through an application process identifying their clientele, services provided, criteria for assistance and more. Once approved by the Coordinating Committee, an agency is welcome to receive goods and services for as long as need. Locally Community for Christ and Share the Harvest receive aid. Final Sunday to turn in your donation is July 23rd. Thanks for your generosity in the past years.

The card bingo fundraiser will be held Friday September 8th. Tickets will be available beginning Sunday August 13th at $10.00 each. As always, a fun time will be had by all. Flyers will soon appear with additional details. Make plans to attend.

One last item, please remember Blue Box food donations to Community for Christ. Items needed are listed in the Sunday bulletin.

Any questions regarding any activities can be dissected to any member of Social Ministries. May GOD bless you and your family. —Jim Mellody, Chair

2023

The Festival of Sharing is a cooperative response to world hunger, poverty, and injustice. These concerns motivate our actions to raise awareness of the causes and generate solutions. Our goal is to promote and support projects and programs by providing funding and resource goods. When people of faith come together and share, we can make a positive and powerful difference in the lives of people in need.

Again this year we are accepting donations that will go toward this worthy cause. Any amount is appreciated. Envelopes will be available on the entry table, in the Gathering Place, and in the fellowship hall beginning July 9.

Donations will be accepted through July 30

Checks should be made out to "Kent Social Ministry".
