Called to Hospitality

Let mutual love continue. Do not neglect to show hospitality to strangers, for by doing that some have entertained angels without knowing it. Hebrews 13:1-2

As Abraham and Sarah were camped by the Oaks of Mamre three strangers came to visit, and Abraham and Sarah welcomed them with rest and refreshment. They showed hospitality to them. Only later would Abraham and Sarah would realize that those three strangers were actually God. From that moment on showing hospitality to strangers became a central part of Jewish identity. Who are we as the people of God? We are people who treat strangers as if they might be angels. We are the people who welcome everyone as if we were welcoming God.

To be sure, that was always more of an ideal than a reality. Human beings, by nature, tend to be fearful of strangers and standoffish to those who are outside their group. But the expectation was that as God's chosen people they would provide rest and sanctuary to everyone who came to them, and that coming into a Jewish community would truly be coming into the presence of God.

As disciples of Jesus that remains a part of our calling. Those who are in need, those who are hungry, those who are in danger, those who are alone and outcast should find welcome and hospitality among God's people.

That is surely true in congregations. Everyone who walks through the doors of a church should feel welcome and cared for. Whatever their background, whatever their age, race or situation in life, they should be treated with respect and even honor, as if they were angels, as if they were God himself.

I think Kent is particularly good at this. I hear so many people comment about how welcoming and warm our congregation is. Still, we would do well, I think, to consider our calling and how we can be even more hospitable? How can we be sure that people are comfortable here? How can we help them? How can we provide for them what they need, be that a place of rest, a place to be in God's presence, friendship, forgiveness, or food for their journey? For indeed, when we welcome strangers, we truly are welcoming angels. When we are hospitable we are entertaining God himself.

Have a blessed July!
God bless you all,
Pastor Ed

FINANCIAL NOTES:

- A. Current Financial Situation – Kent’s giving position through May 2024 was consistent compared to the same timeframe of previous years. Kent’s actual expenses for May was the lowest of the year. As a reminder, insurance premiums of $12,000 were paid in full in January. Thank you to all those who prayerfully give offerings to support Kent’s mission.
- B. Thrivent Designation –Through Thrivent Choice[®], Thrivent members can contribute to organizations and causes they care about—and influence how Thrivent distributes some of its charitable grant funding through Choice Dollars[®]. Please consider going into your Thrivent account online and designating Kent as that organization.
- C. Thrivent Action Teams – Thrivent provides $250 per project to kick-start a fundraiser, educational event, or service project for Kent or the community. Each qualifying Thrivent member can submit two projects per year for approval by Thrivent. This is an excellent way to provide funds to do projects and not have to use Kent budgeted monies. If you have questions about this, please contact Joyce Wanamaker or Kathy Fair. Recent Action Team Projects:

STEWARDSHIP CDRNER

Everything we have is a gift from God, and stewardship is our response to these gifts!

In February we looked at one of the Stewardship prayers found in the front of our hymnal, when we prayed for the renewal of mind and body. This month we are going to focus on another of the prayers, one devoted to the proper use of wealth.

Let us pray, "O God, in your love you have given the people of this land gifts of abundance beyond what our forebears knew or could imagine. Mercifully grant that we may not be so occupied with material things that we forget spiritual gifts, and thus, even though we have gained the whole world, lose our souls; through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord."

As we celebrate our nations independence this month, let's thank God not only for our material possessions, but for what our founders endured to secure our freedom, including to worship as we choose!

God Bless America!
Michael Wagner

Festival of Sharing is a cooperative response to hunger, poverty and injustice in Missouri and beyond; their hope is to support projects and programs that help our neighbors experience healthy and full lives. As people of faith come together and share, we can make a positive and powerful difference. Local agencies aided include Community for Christ and Share the Harvest.

Faith, Hope and Love Abide,
And the greatest of these is Love!

Love Abides...* Grief Support Group

Love is the most precious of God's gifts. Through God's gift of love, God blesses us in every way imaginable. Love brings life. It brings joy. Love gives us support when we are weak, and it gives us courage when we are fearful. Love fills our lives and our hearts with the beloved. But when we lose someone we love, the hole in our lives is also love-shaped.

Learning to live with our grief is something most of us will have to do in our lives to one degree or another and it isn't something most of us have much experience with. To help all of us on our journeys through grief we are going to start a grief support group here at Kent.

Our next gathering will be Wednesday, July 17 at 3:00 pm.

This is a laid back and comfortable time to honor those we are grieving, share ways we can cope with our feelings and the challenges our losses have brought us, and examine what resources our faith and our church family can bring to our experience of loss.

Anyone and everyone who is grieving is welcome to join in at any time.
