Love Your Enemies

“You have heard that it was said, ‘You shall love your neighbor and hate your enemy.’ But I say to you, love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you,” Matthew 5:43-44

Love your enemies. Was Jesus joking? Was he exaggerating? He couldn't possibly mean that, could he? Of all the things Jesus asked us to do, this has to be one of the most difficult. Enemies are people who have hurt us. They are people who have injured and abused us. Enemies are likely to hurt us again. Everything in us tells us to hate our enemies, to curse them and to wish harm on them. That is what makes sense, what is reasonable and even logical. It would be easy and probably even wise to find a way to explain these verses away, except Jesus lived them out himself.

Jesus loved his enemies to the very end. He loved them as they crucified him, and he loved them so much that he rose from the grave to save them from this terrible thing that they had done. Jesus loved his enemies, Jesus loved us, and Jesus has called on us to do the same.

The world surely needs that kind of love today. The world is filled with enemies. Nations are fighting against nations. People are dividing themselves into smaller and smaller groups and considering everyone outside of their group to be their enemy. People are hurting. People are angry. And to be certain, a lot of people don't feel loved.

Jesus has called us to love: to love one another, to love our neighbors, and yes, to love even and especially our enemies. In that love our salvation was born, and in that same love God's grace will transform our world.

In these days filled with hatred, in these days when some may call us enemy, let us be people of love. Let us break down the barriers between people. Let us bring God's grace to those around us, those who love us and those who hate us. Let us love one another. Let us love our neighbors. And by God's grace and with God's help let us love our enemies so that God's will might be done in us and through us. Let us love.

God bless you all,
God loves you!

You may take one or more numbered tags detailing what this person has wished for Christmas. There will be a clipboard that will list all numbers, fill in your name and phone number on the line corresponding to the tag you chose. STEWARDSHIP CDRNER

Everything we have is a gift from God, and stewardship is our response to these gifts!

During this month of Thanksgiving, we have the opportunity to reflect on everything we should be thankful for and how truly blessed we are. As Christian stewards we are called to share our blessings with others. Paul wrote, "Blessed is the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our troubles so that we may be able to comfort those experiencing any trouble with the comfort with which we ourselves are comforted by God." 2 Cor 1:3-4

Over the past couple of months two strong hurricanes have devastated the lives of thousands of our fellow brothers & sisters in North Carolina, Florida, Georgia, Tennessee, South Carolina and even Virginia. As I mentioned in my temple talk on October 6th, many people are devastated, many have lost their lives and those that didn't are suffering and need our help, now, and for a long time going forward. Imagine not having electric, food, water or sewer, or to have lost your home, or even worse, a loved one. With that in mind I want to share again places that are helping in the hurricane relief efforts. Here is a short list:

Please check out Charity Navigator, charitynavigator.org to review ratings or to see Charity Navigator's extensive list of top-rated organizations that are aiding the relief efforts.

Lutheran Disaster Response – ELCA.org

Samaritan's Purse – samaritanspurse.org

American Red Cross – redcross.org

Team Rubicon – teamrubiconusa.org

United Way – unitedway.org

Salvation Army – give.salvationarmyusa.org

Convoy of Hope – convoyofhope.org

Laurie Sunrise Beach Rotary Club – PO Box 98

Let's try to help our brothers and sisters have a meaningful Thanksgiving! Hearing God's call and responding in LOVE, We share Jesus with All!

God's Peace,
Michael Wagner

FINANCIAL NOTES:

- A. Current Financial Situation – Kent’s giving position in September and for the year has continued to stabilize, allowing Kent to be back into normal cash flow for 2024. Kent’s actual expenses for the year through September are slightly below budget. As a reminder, insurance premiums of $12,000 for the year were paid in full in January. Thank you to all those who prayerfully give offerings to support Kent’s mission.
- B. Thrivent Designation –Through Thrivent Choice®, Thrivent members can contribute to organizations and causes they care about—and influence how Thrivent distributes some of its charitable grant funding through Choice Dollars®. Please consider going into your Thrivent account online and designating Kent as that organization.
- C. Thrivent Action Teams – Thrivent provides $250 per project to kick-start a fundraiser, educational event, or service project for Kent or the community. Each qualifying Thrivent member can submit two projects per year for approval by Thrivent. This is an excellent way to provide funds to do projects and not have to use Kent budgeted monies. HARVEST GARDEN

Beginning November 17, the Annual Harvest Garden will be in the Gathering Place. This is a celebration of all the gifts that God has given us through the year.

The Worship & Music Committee will set up the Garden on Saturday, November 16. If you would like to contribute items, such as fall flowers, pumpkins and gourds, etc., feel free to drop them off on Saturday morning.

The Garden will remain up until November 24, after worship.

IT'S THAT TIME OF YEAR...

Remember to set your clocks back one hour on Saturday, November 2.

Did You Know...

Did you know that by dropping a few can goods or personal care items in the big blue tote conveniently located out in the narthex is a great way to live out our mission statement? "Hearing God's call and responding in love, we share Jesus with all."

We share Jesus with all when we help someone put supper on the table. We share Jesus with all when someone has the means to take a bath & wash their hair because we put some shower gel & shampoo in our blue box.

Working through our partnership with Community for Christ, every time you spend a couple extra dollars at the grocery store and drop those things in that big blue box out in the narthex, you help make someone's life just a little better. Thanks for the many ways you share Jesus with all!

Faith, Hope and Love Abide,
And the greatest of these is Love!

Love Abides...
Grief Support Group

Love is the most precious of God's gifts. Through God's gift of love, God blesses us in every way imaginable. Love brings life. It brings joy. Love gives us support when we are weak, and it gives us courage when we are fearful. Love fills our lives and our hearts with the beloved. But when we lose someone we love, the hole in our lives is also love-shaped.

Learning to live with our grief is something most of us will have to do in our lives to one degree or another and it isn't something most of us have much experience with. To help all of us on our journeys through grief we have a grief support group here at Kent.

Our next gathering will be Wednesday, November 20 at 3:00 pm.

This is a laid back and comfortable time to honor those we are grieving, share ways we can cope with our feelings and the challenges our losses have brought us, and examine what resources our faith and our church family can bring to our experience of loss.

Anyone and everyone who is grieving is welcome to join in at any time.
